A Home For Helpless

Awadhesh Kumar Vajpayee was born on 08/07/1963 in Gwalior, Madhya Pradesh. He was in Gwalior. Graduated. He completely devoted himself to the service of humanity in Faridabad. Dedicated himself. During this dedication, he was working as a manager in a nursing home in Faridabad, he left there only because he went home and served an old man.

Awadhesh Kumar Bajpai
Secretary

In the year 2008, he took a new step and gave birth to an organization whose purpose was to serve the non-cooperative and the aged, registered his organization on the year 09-09-2010, Vanakar, a member of the Sevadharma Patient Care Society, as the secretary of the organization, he Launched an Integrated Social Development Project for the benefit of the Sehri and rural people of NCR Faridabad districts. Sevadharma, a nationally recognized patient care and training center for the illiterate, has been established simultaneously. The objective of the organization is that We have to serve such people who are in the oppressed society. We are getting neglected, whom people do not want to see and people who refuse to see them, we and the workers of our organization reach out to them and want to take care of them according to their needs so that the purpose of our organization is fulfilled. We are like a child, the way a mother serves and takes care of her child, in the same way our aim through the organization is that we should serve and take care of them in the society. In today's time I. I want to give this message that you are not alone, our organization is standing with you at every step.
